JAKE FLEAGLE SOUGHT BY POSSE IN WYOMING

PILE DRIVER BUSY AT FORD PLANT SITE

'ROUND 'N' 'ROUND

School starts Monday. Thousands of Richmond children at eight o'clock Monday morning will leave their homes for school.

* * * *

Thousands of school children will say goodbye to vacation—and its joys.

* * * *

Hundreds of teachers will start another semester of toil, and trouble, trying to restrain the animal spirits of their classes.

* * * *

And many boys in high school will sigh and wish, "Gosh, I wish I were out of school and working instead of being here."

* * * *

And hundreds of other boys, who are out of school and are working, wish they were back in school.

* * * *

And football season will soon be here.

* * * *

No, sir, it won't be long now.

* * * *

On Saturday's one will see the big throngs hurrying to Berkeley to the Memorial stadium to follow the fortunes of the Golden Bear team.

* * * *

And until football season is concluded, we expect to be driven crazy by a St. Mary's fan and a California fan.

* * * *

And on Saturday afternoons we will hear the radio announcer yell:

* * * *

"Smith has the ball—no, Jones—no, Brown—no—anyway someone has it—he's off to the races—five—ten—fifteen—ah—he stopped him that time—oh, boy—wait, we'll learn what happened—here it is—Lee lost five yards in an attempted run around right end."

* * * *

And, maybe, if we are good children and wash behind our ears and don't forget to fold our napkins when we leave the dinner table, we shall hear Graham McNamee describe the beautiful California sunsets—"those hills—those flowers—ah—There's a football game going on here—but I don't know what it's all about—those flowers—"

But, let's hope not.

ONE DRIVER IS BEING BUILT

Construction of a pile-driver was started at the Ford factory site on the Richmond inner harbor yesterday.

Two more of the drivers are to be built.

At the present time one pile driver is actively engaged, and has driven almost a score of concrete piles for the falsework of the Ford wharf.

Bring Drivers Here

Several other pile drivers are to be brought to Richmond by the Clinton construction company, general contractors.

The office building for the Clinton company is practically completed and a force of seven office employes have occupied the structure.

T. C. Peterson, general superintendent of the work here, has his main offices in this building.

Winkler Leaves

William Bremmer, architect for the Ford company and Robert Winkler, a Ford engineer who have been staying at the Hotel Carquinez left last night for Long Beach where they will inspect the Ford plant there.

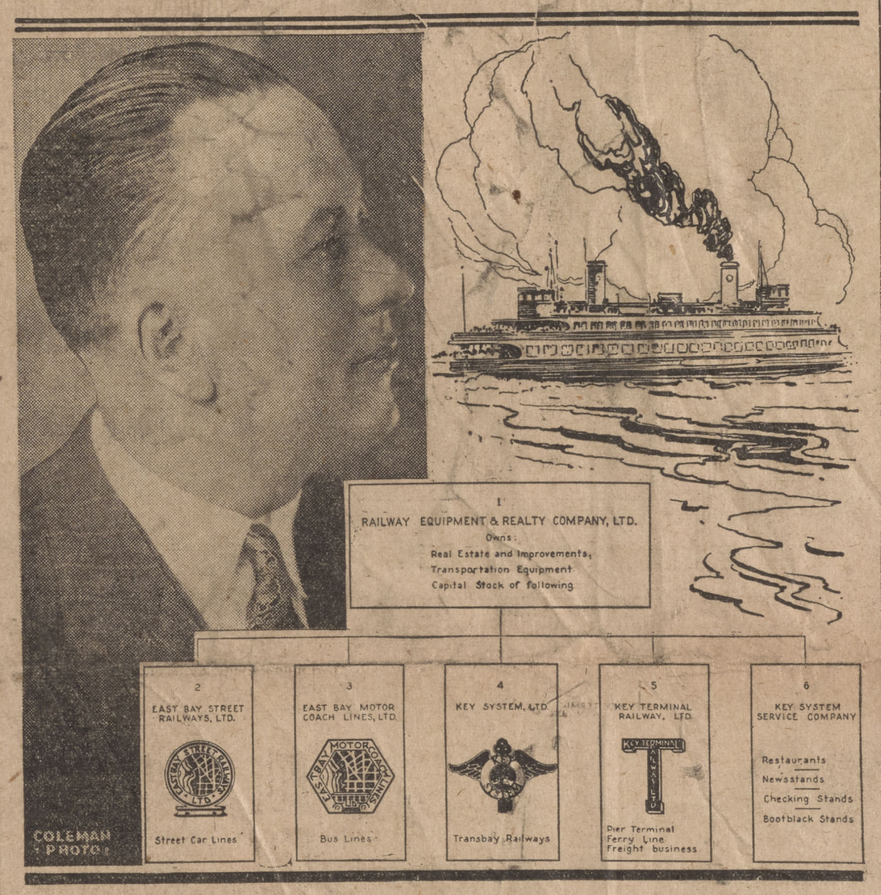
Winkler and Bremmer are devoting their time between the local and the southern plant of the motor company.

To Hire Men

It is expected that within a short time a large force of men will be employed at the plant during the construction.

Richmond men will be given the preference, officials of the construction company have announced.

President of Key



ALFRED J. LUNDBERG, president of the Key System Transit company who steered his company through a successful readjustment of its affairs. Lundberg will continue to head the administration of the transit company. Diagram shows the new companies organized to handle the Eastbay transportation facilities and their relationship to each other.

PLAYGROUND DIRECTORS TO MEET

Plans for the year's recreational activities in Richmond will be formed this morning at a meeting of the local playground directors, according to Ivan W. Hill, city recreational drector.

Hill stated that the recreation program in Richmond will be continued on the same general principles initiated under the direction of the late W. L. Seawright, former city playground director.

No drastic changes will probably be made, Hill stated. No new appointments to the playground commission have been announced.

A complete and interesting program will be scheduled by Hill and his assistants this season.

Plans for inter-playground competition are expected to be formed in the near future. The City Industrial basketball league will also be included in the year's program.

Hill stated that the business men's gymnasium classes will probably get under way in about two weeks.

POLICE HUNT EDUCATOR, GIRL

SACRAMENTO, Aug. 8—The simultaneous disappearance of Kenneth W. Hodge, principal of the Florin grammar school near here, and Dorothy Bonucelli, pretty blond 15 year old school girl, is the reason for a nation-wide search for the pair.

The couple disappeared from Florin ten days ago, and have not yet been found.

Sheriff Ellis W. Jones stated that Hodge will be held on an abduction charge if found in the girl's company, while a warrant charging the girl with delinquency was issued by juvenile authorities of Florin.

According to Jones, Dorothy Bonucelli and her 30year old instructor had been very intimate. Jones feared that Hodge had taken the girl out of the country in order to cover up some illegal act.

Ten days ago the girl disappeared from the prosperous ranch of her father, and Hodge disappeared from his home, leaving a wife and three children. He told his wife that he was going to seek employment in Reno.

The girl is a striking blond, and possesses thick, wavy hair, and blue eyes.

The principal is of medium stature, with brown hair, and no teeth.

Engaged?

RUMOR HAS it that Mrs. Dudley Coats, beautiful heiress, is soon to wed Marshall Field, the millionaire.

BANK SLAYER HIDES IN HILLS

ROCK SPRINGS, Wyo., Aug. 8.—Jake Fleagle, fourth member of the Fleagle gang which slaughtered four persons in the Lamar, Colo. bank robbery, according to sheriff's officers here, has been living in the Jackson Hole region under the name of Harry Willis.

Authorities learned today that Fleagle, with a pony as his only companion, stopped here only long enough to recoup his finances at the expense of Rock Springs gamblers.

Harry Walters made the identification, having met the man in the Jackson Hole district during a recent outing.

Posses immediately started in search of the alleged killer, but due to the wildness of the district, which offers a number of mountain retreats, it was considered doubtful that the search would be of any avail.

Three other members of the Fleagle gang, Ralph Fleagle, Howard Royston and George Abshier were hung at the Canon City penitentiary recently.

JUSTICES TO BE GUARDED AT PRISON

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 8.—UP—Justices of the California Supreme Court busied themselves today with routine duties that have been unattended for a week while they sat as a fact-finding commission on the application of Warren K. Billings for pardon, and meanwhile careful preparations were underway to protect them from convict violence when they go to Folsom prison next week to question Billings.

Warden Court Smith of Folsom has been given the most trouble some problem that has arisen since the unusual hearing started before the Supreme Court justices here. He must arrange guards adequately so that the justices who have ruled on many of his prisoners' sentences may be safe all the time they are within the prison walls.

Consequently, it was said, the hearing will probably start about 5 p. m. on a day yet to be selected, so that all inmates of the prison which is for second and third offenders may be locked in their cells for the night when the justices arrive.

In such event it will probably last far into the night, as Billings desires to personally refute much of the testimony that has beeen given here, particularly that of Estelle Smith, who was a principal witness against him at his original trial.

Attorneys participating in the case spent the day issuing statements which tended to indicate they were confident the Supreme Court's final decision would be in their favor.

The hearing will be resumed next Tuesday, probably with Edward Cunha, who prosecuted Billings, on the witness stand for cross examination.

PICKFORD TO MARRY AGAIN

SALINAS, Cal., Aug. 8.—UP—Jack Pickford, member of the famous Pickford screen family, and Miss Mary Mulhern of Hollywood, today applied for a marriage license at the county clerk's office here.

The couple was first reported as "intending to seek a license" when stopping for lunch at Del Monte Lodge at Pebble Beach. It was reported that they intended to wed immediately after the issuance of a license, which cannot be given them until Monday under California's three-day marriage law.

As soon as they completed the formalities at the clerk's office Pickford and Miss Mulhern motored away in the direction of Pebble Beach.

Pickford gave his age as 33 while his bride-to-be said she was 22.

LEGION ELEVEN TO SOON START PRACTICE

The familiar sound of toe meeting pigskin, the oft repeated cries of "ball, ball" and the stentorian bark of a disgusted coach, will once more rent the atmosphere in Richmond, when the American Legion football team holds its first practice of the season Tuesday at 5 o'clock on the high school grounds.

Announcement of the first practice this year was made by Dan "Hap" Bradley at a meeting of prospective gridmen in the Memorial hall last night.

Bradley, manager for the second year of the Richmond Post football squad, seemed optimistic in regards to the team's chances this season, and was pleased at the number of players who are expected to show up for the first practice.

Starts Soon

"I realize, fellows," Bradley said, "that it is a little early in the season to commence practice, but we'll be getting a good start on the other teams, and when they are just beginning to play, our boys will be in mid-season form.

"The Richmond team this year, from pre-season appearances, will be one of the classiest in the state, and I am predicting a good season for the fellows."

Bradley emphasized the necessity of constant and regular practice, and declared that negotiations are now being made to obtain a good coach for the squad.

Many Players

A number of prominent players were present at the meeting last night, all well-known in local football circles, and all declaring their intentions of playing with the squad.

Bradley issued a tentative announcement of players who may be seen in action with this year's team, which included such players as Harry Clarke, Chub Hays, Cliff Adcock, George Cornell, Barney Bonneville, Milton Frazier, Bus Cooper, Ed Hurley, Jim McAllister, John Carey, R. Sheehy, W. Sheehy, Herman Meyers and George Rudy, of last year's Richmond American Legion team; Maynard Youngs, of the 1929 Oakland American Legion team; Bill Milne of the 1929 Alameda American Legion team; "Babe" Paillo of the 1929 Fort Bragg American Legion team; and "Toots" Hall and "Rusty" Lane of the 1929 Richmond Union high school varsity.

S. F. PREPARES FOR CONCLAVE OF EAGLES

SAN FRANCISCO—UP — Unemployment considered a major problem, will occupy a large share of attention when 6500 members of the Fraternal Order of Eagles meet here in national convention.

Not long ago the Indiana Eagles, in regular convention, passed a resolution which urged that a federal industrial commission, with powers like those of the Interstate Commerce Commission, be created to save America from destructive periods of idleness. This resolution will be presented at the convention here by the Indiana delegation with a request that the order "organize the man power and the means and the influence of our entire membership so as to hasten the amelioration of such unnecessary economic condition and its ultimate removal from our national life."

Among leaders of the Eagles indorsing the resolution is Charles J. Chenu, Sacramento, Cal., national president of the order, who attended the Indiana convention. In expressing a belief that the resolution will receive nation-wide consideration, Chenu cites success of the Eagles in sponsoring the old age pension movement, resulting in 12 states enacting pension laws. As to the man power of the organization, Chenu announced that at the convention here a report will be made showing 92,458 new members were added during the fiscal year ended May 31 last, the greatest gain in the 31 years since the order was founded.

Frank E. Hering, South Bend, Ind., editor of the Eagle magazine and past national president of the order, presented the resolution in the course of an address before the Indiana convention.

A'S INCREASE LEAD BY WIN

American League

The Philadelphia Athletics added half a game to their American league lead Friday by taking a double-header from the Chicago White Sox 5-1 and 4-1. The Athletics now top the Washington Senators by 8 games and the New York Yankees by 9½ games.

Lefty Grove won his 18th game of the season in the first game, blanking the White Sox after the first inning. Bill Shores outpitched Ted Lyons in the second game, holding Chicago to four hits. Al Simmons accounted for five of the Athletics' runs in the two games, driving in three runs in the first game and two in the second. Simmons hit his 28th homer of the season with two mates on base in the opener.

Heinie Manush's double and Joe Cronin's single in the eighth drove in the winning run as Washington defeated Cleveland, 5-4.

Scoring three runs in the eighth the New York Yankees came from behind to defeat the St. Louis Browns, 5-3, and win their fourth straight game.

Detroit's six game winning streak was broken by the Boston Red Sox with an 8 to 6 victory over the Tigers.

National League

Brooklyn maintained its lead of 3½ games in the National league Friday by winning the opening game from the St. Louis Cardinals, 11-5. Babe Herman had a perfect day at bat, getting four hits, including his 25 th and 26th home runs of the season.

The New York Giants opened their final western invasion with a double victory over Pittsburgh, 9-1 and 7-2, and moved within two games of the Cubs. Bill Walker and Carl Hubbell were the winning pitchers.

The Phillies won from Cincinnati, 8-5. Fred Brickell, acquired from Pittsburgh, made his debut with the Phillies by starting a 5 run rally in the first inning with a triple.

TENNIS CLUB WILL MEET SOON

The meeting will take place in the City hall at 7:30 o'clock. Lawrence Phillips, vice president of the association, will preside.

The county net tourney will be played on the local City hall courts during the latter part of September. The tournament will probably be held toward the end of the month in order to avoid conflicting with the state championship competition which will be held during the early part of September.

LEGION NINE BEATEN BY BERKELEY

It was no fault of Gordon Lemon that the Richmond American Legion boys went down to a one to nothing defeat before the Berkeley American Legion nine yesterday afternoon in a twelve inning contest at Berkeley.

Lemon set 22 Berkeleyans to their bench badly baffled by his fast, consistent pitching, and the Berkeley youngsters nicked him for but three bingles. Lemon was as the peak of his pitching ability yesterday afternoon.

Although only an exhibition contest, yesterday's game had more of the appearance of a real championship battle than did the scuffle held several weeks ago between Richmond and Berkeley for the eastbay title.

Both teams showed a far better playing standard yesterday than was displayed by them in the title scrimmage. The infields of the two outfits played errorless ball.

The Berkeley and Richmond and Berkeley boys battled gamely during eleven hot, hard innings without breaking into a score. The Berkeleyans finally broke through to score by a very narrow margin.

Many positions in the lineups of both terms were filled by second string players in yesterday's game, but the second string men made good their chance at Junior baseball renown.

Shoemaker on the mound for Berkeley, also chucked a clever brand of ball yesterday. He allowed but three hits ,and whiffed 14 local sluggers.

Les Scarsella, Richmond's initial sacker ,did the big hitting of the contest. He made good two out of four and reached second base on a well placed hit into the outfield.

The Richmond and American Legion squads will tangle again next Saturday at First street.

Berkeley was recently eliminated in the state semifinals by the Stockton youngsters. Stockton is meeting San Bernardino in the state finals this week end at Long Beach.

Mortuary Chosen As Hen's Nest

HICKORY FLAT, Miss. —UP— There are some utterly impossible chickens here.

An old hen, who should have learned better after all these years of cackling, constructed a nest in the coffin and casket room of an undertaking establishment.

The hen apparently ignorant of the fact that quiet is desired in those quarters, strutted daily about the room. Recently, however, the nest was destroyed when an unobserving attendant moved a casket atop it.

The hen failed to leave her forwarding address.

Favorites In Finals Of Net Play In East

SOUTHAMPTON, N. Y., Aug. 8. —(UP)—Sidney B. Wood, Jr., New York, and Wilmer Allison, Austin, Texas, today battled their way through stern opposition to reach the singles finals of the Meadow club's annual invitation tennis tournament.

Wood, who only last week annexed the famed Seabright bowl, continues his amazing way in defeating Frank X. Shields in the semi-finals, 1-6, 1-6, 10-8, 7-5, 6-4, while Allison eliminated Francis T. Hunter, New Rochelle veteran, 6-4, 9-11, 4-6, 7-5, 6-2.

Shields' defeat came as a surprise to the gallery for the former junior champion, after his smashing defeat of Bill Tilden in the quarter-finals, was rated a heavy favorite.

Youthful stamina carried the Davis cup star over Hunter. Until he tired badly in the last two sets, Hunter carried the fight to his opponent.

Tilden passed completely out of the tournament when he and Hunter were defeated in a quarter-finals double match by Wood and Shields, 6-4, 6-3. The two youngsters, who only a few hours earlier had fought so bitterly in the singles, teamed together well to defeat Big Bill and his partner.

Phil Neer, Portland, Ore., and Ed Feibleman, New York, defeated Jack Tidball and Dr. Gerald Bortosh, both of Los Angeles, in another quarter-finals match, 3-6, 6-3, 6-4.

J. Gilbert Hall, South Orange, N. J., and R. Norris Williams, Philadelphia, defeated Wilbur (Junior) Coen, Kansas City.

FIREMEN BEAT OAKLAND NINE

The Richmond Firemen tied another hard won scalp to their belt yesterday afternoon when they trounced the Oakland fire-fighters by a score of eight to five.

The local ladder climbers were given goodly opposition by the Oakland nine, but they finally triumphed through a determined hitting drive.

Carl "Iron Man" Kamb did a nice chucking job for the local aggregation. Alec Morrison represented the local behind home platter.

"Fireman" Jones hurled a fast game for the Oaklanders .

The contest was played at Bay View park in Oakland.

The Richmond Firemen were recently eliminated by a narrow margin from competition for the Richmond City Twilight baseball league title. They are still going strong and are expected to end a heavy season with a true flourish of fine baseball.

Shifting Sands Reveal City

PHOENIX, Ariz. —UP— Cibola, "City of Jewels," sought four centuries ago by Spanish conquistadores when they learned from Indian legends of its ancient existence, is believed to have been found here recently, when sands of the Arizona desert near Palomas shifted and revealed ruins of a lost city.

The discovery was made by W. J. Hanna, federal land inspector, who claims to have found evidence of prehistoric civilization along an ancient water course.

Much pottery and remains of an ingenious irrigation system were uncovered, he said.

Excavation is planned in the fall.

Honey Oozes Out Of Tree

DUNCAN, Okla.—UP—The city of Duncan lays claim to the only "honey tree" in the world. The tree is a hollow oak in which bees belonging to L. A. Morton have been storing honey.

This year the tree is covered with small beads of honey. When the temperature rises the honey drips to the ground.

It has not been ascertained whether the bees are storing the honey on the branches or whether it is circulating through the sap of the tree and seeping through the cracks in the limbs.

READY CASH in the BANK

Is The Kind of Money That Makes Money

The foundation of many a fortune has been a small sum of money saved and in the bank ready for opportunity.

Preparedness and opportunity work together. It is the man or woman with a savings account in the bank that is able to take advantage of opportunities to secure sound investments and bargains in real estate, to build a home or buy a partnership or start a business.

CLUBWOMEN AT MEET HERE LAY FALL PLANS

Devoted to all endeavors for the betterment of the home, department chairman of Alameda district, California Federation of Women's clubs at the first meeting of the new year held yesterday in Richmond, outlined plans for coming programs throughout Alameda, San Joaquin, Contra Costa, Calaveras and Tuolumne counties. Mrs. S. S. Ripley, of Richmond, district president called this opening meeting to order, Mrs. W. W. Scarlett, president of Richmond club was the hostess chairman.

The main speaker of the afternoon was Mrs. H. G. Sharp of Oakland a delegate to the recent biennial in Denver, who told of outstanding topics and discussions during the 10 day general federation convention. Mrs. Sharp said "For myself, I learned a greater respect for unselfish women, because the leaders we heard were unselfish; and a greater belief in what women can do, if they stand together."

Delegates were in attendance from Vienna, Korea, Havana, Australia, Alaska, Panama, and all states of the United States, according to Mrs. Sharp.

The stand of the women of the world on the prohibition question was shown in a vote when only nine dissenting votes were cast. The vote on the world court as well was practically unanimous. There was special interest in an international scholarship. Elimination not only of bill boards but also of automobile graveyards was stressed at this biennial, Mrs. Sharp told the clubwomen.

A summary of departmental plans yesterday urged that every clubwoman vote at every election regardless of seeming unimportance of the issue; that club tours be made of the immigration quarters at Angel Island; that each community preserve everything pertaining to pioneers, plant memory gardens, featuring the varieties of flowers and plants loved by the early settlers in our state, that museums be instituted in each community; that clubs offer prizes for the best photographs of birds in the open, that living Christmas trees be illuminated during the holidays, and potted trees used in the home, to be planted at the close of the Christmas season; that rural inter-county tours be suggested on home demonstration, with traveling exhibits; that character development through vocational education and appreciation of better English be stressed; that clubs insist on a family program in the motion picture house over the week end and many other suggestions which will be followed by various clubs of the five counties under their respective department leaders.

The report of Mrs. E. C. Wiester, formerly Contra Costa county federation president, on her plans for district work in the department of American home in connection with state activities, was one of the most interesting of the day. Mrs. C. M. Haring, state chairman of American home was present at yesterday's meeting. Activities will promote among the junior clubs, the model doll house- contest, the making of layettes that are distributed to needy families, the planning of a child's wardrobe for club-adopted child, a school wardrobe for the older child, a story contest to portray to foreign nations the ideals of the American home.

Mrs. A. B. Armstrong, state chairman of radio and drama was also in attendance yesterday.

Luncheon was served at noon by a committee of Richmond club members consisting of Mrs. J. W. Smiley, Mrs. Zelda Chapin, Mrs. Leslie Black, Mrs. Amy Mugg, and Miss Emily Walthers.

SOCIAL LION STARS OAKIE AT FOX

Jack Oakie, star of "The Social Lion," and wise cracking performer of its title role at the Fox-California Theater, began making smart remarks when he was but a lad in one figure, and happily, he has carried that sparkling propensity as part of his personal resources until today, when he is in two figures —his early twenties.

It all started when folks tried to tease the 6-year old Oakie about his freckles. He still has the freckles but there are no more teasers for Jack has taught all would-be taunters that he is one of the world's quickest tongued retort men.

Paramount picked Oakie from the vodvil stage a little more than a year ago and placed him in "The Fleet's In." He did a bit part very well and, a short time later, he naturally rated parts in the talkies. Thus it was that the public rocked with glee at his wise cracks in "The Dummy," "Sweetie," "Fast Company," and others.

When movie fans everywhere began referring to Oakie as "The Wizzard of Wise-Crackery" Paramount was deciding that the boy who made good by the snappy answer route was deserving of stardom. And hence "The Social Lion" his first starring picture.

"The Social Lion" is a fine vehicle for the ready-response Jack. He is seen as a garage mechanic, former enlisted cavalryman who can play polo so well that he gets a place on the team at an exclusive country club. He tries to make good with the ritzy girls at the club, and they turn out to be his near-Waterloo. But never mind the plot—the important thing is that here's Jack Oakie cracking wise in his own inimitable fashion in a laugh-provoking play that will keep you mirthified until long after you go home and put out the cat.

Also Matilda Meyer's Dancing Kiddies in afternoon and evening.

LUPE VELEZ IN FILM PLAY AT THE FOX

Lupe Valez is Anita ,the daughter of Morgan, a descendant of the great buccaneer in "Hell Harbor," the latest United Artists-Inspiration picture which opens tomorrow at the Fox-California Theater. The blood of pirates, intermingling with the royal corpuscles of Spanish ladies coures through her veins and for the entire length of the picture Lupe is quite her own volcanic self.

"Hell Harbor," is a tale of pirate-like traders modern incarnations of Kidd and Silver, who seek to steal, not only gold, but ladies' hearts. On the Island of Madre, a rough jewel of the Carribbean where a polyglot crowd makes life swift and interesting, Lupe as Anita, is beset by a treacherous father who wishes to marry her to a shrewd trader, played deftly and ably by that excellent character actor Jean Hersholt. Out of the frustration of her father's attempt to marry her to Horngold ,the trader comes Lupe's true love—a lover American and bold—played by John Holland, last seen here in "She Goes to War," with Eleanor Boardman.

The featured players, Lupe and Jean Hersholt, play their parts admirably. Lupe gives a vigorous interpretation of the wild, young lass whose unbending will gives the story impetus. For the first time she speaks and the voice which was heard singing in "Lady of the Pavements," comes now vibrantly and sweetly with the words on Anita in "Hell Harbor." Here is a naivete to the manner in which Lupe speaks her lines that is altogether charming. Also Fox Movietone News and Charlie Chase in "All Teed Up."

MILLIONS TO BE SPENT ON FORESTS

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 8.—The United States forest service will spend $5,059,600 in California during the period July 1, 1930, to June 30, 1931, according to a report of Regional Forester S. B. Show. This is an increase of $1,357,974 over the expenditures during the past fiscal year and marks a substantial growth in federal appropriations for the management and protection of the national forests.

The chief item of increase, amounting to $750,000, is in the $1,428,063 appropriation received by the California region, under the terms of the Colton-Oddie bill passed by the last Congress, for the construction of major roads which form a part of the state and county highway systems within and adjacent to the national forests. This additional money will be spent in the construction and maintenance of 175 miles of roads built under the engineering supervision of the bureau of public roads in cooperation with the state division of highways.

Under the terms of the Clarke-McNary Act, the division of forestry, state department of natural resources, will receive a $57,000 increase and a total appropriation of $147,715 for the prevention and suppression of forest and brush fires on state and private lands.

The special fire prevention appropriation made by Congress for the national forests of southern California, which is matched dollar for dollar by local contributions, has been increased $25,000 and now totals $150,000. This money is used for the construction of fire prevention improvements such as roads, trails, and fire breaks.

The California forest experiment station has been given a total appropriation of $85,850, or an increase of $32,000 over last year, for developing and carrying on experiments in fire research, forestry practice in the redwood region and the study of the relation of brush and forest cover to water supply.

Other increases received by the forest service for the administration, protection and improvement of the national forests, are: $300,000 for building roads and trails not on the state and county systems, $70,000 for special fire prevention measures and equipment, $55,000 for the construction and maintenance of fire lookout stations, telephone lines and like improvements, and $9,000 for nursery and planting work.

In addition to the above expenditures, 39 counties in California will receive a total of $409,335, or an increase of $52,000 over the past year, for schools and roads. This return by the federal government is made in lieu of taxes to the counties under the law requiring that 25 per cent of the receipts received from the sale and use of forest resources shall be returned to the state for division among the counties containing national forest acreage.

ARMY PROBES GUARD KILLING

SAN LUIS OBISPO, Aug. 8—The mysterious shooting last night of Guardsman Robert W. Tucker, 53, real estate salesman, of 11361 California street, San Francisco, was being investigated here today by a military court headed by Major General David P. Barrows, division commander of the National Guard.

Tucker was killed by a rifle bullet while sitting in his tent at the camp on Morro road.

No one reported the shot and there was no rifle practice at the time. Coroner Ray Richardson believes the shooting was accidental. He is of the opinion that the bullet came from another tent.

The dead man was formerly a druggist of Goldfield, Nevada. He had been in the employment of an Oakland real estate firm for the past two years and was spending a two week training period at the camp.

TRANSAMERICA HITS NEW LOW

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 8—UP—A forceful statement, in which J. A. Bacigalupi, general counsel of Transamerica corporation, declared "senseless and unnecessary selling" had caused stock of the corporation to drop to 18 3-4 on the San Francisco stock exchange today, a new low for the year, was issued shortly after the exchange closed.

The stock also broke on the New York stock exchange.

"Our stock holders would fare infinitely better and they would more closely be performing their duty were they to stop lending listening ears to baseless rumors and wild forecasts by unscrupulous self-seekers and playing into the hands of the shorts," Bacigalupi said. "If they would show more faith and fight they, their fellow owners, and the institutions would be immeasurably better off."

Although the stock recovered in the final hours of the day and climbed to 19 at the close, the general counsel and former president of the Bank of Italy declared in his statement "Transamerica today should be a good investment at between $30 and $40 a share.

There were a number of declines on the local exchange today, ranging from one to more than seven points, but Transamerica stock 129,300 shares of which changed hands, attracted most attention. It opened at 21 1-8.

Bacigalupi started his statement as follows:

"The present market action of Transamerica stock is unjustifiable and deplorable.

"In my opinion Transamerica's holdings are as sound and valuable and the organization in charge of Transamerica operating properties are as energetic and efficient today as they ever were, and their promise for the future is even greater.

"All talk of values by self-constituted appraisers is manifestly unfair and inexcusable.

"Who could hope to acquire or to build the splendid and profitable operating properties of Transamerica on the basis of the 'assets' or 'skin and bone' values being generally discussed?

"As I see it, even in the face of the times and the prospective temporarily lessened dividend returns, Transamerica today should be a good investment at between $30 and $40 per share.

"This is where it should now be selling and where it undoubtedly would be were not our stockholders allowing themselves to be stampeded into senseless and unnecessary selling."

Japan To Assist Illegitimates

TOKYO.—UP—A movement to remove the stigma attached to children born out of wedlock has been started by the ministry of justice here.

The Japanese civil marriage ceremony is simple, for it requires only that the young man and woman register at a ward office and pay a few sen for the registration. Nevertheless investigation by the justice ministry has revealed that the practice known in the west as "free love" is growing alarmingly.

At present the law provides that a child born out of wedlock must take the mother's name. The ministry, however, plans to alter the law so that the child will have the right to assume the father's name and be eligible for inheritance.

Orient Knows "Scarface Al"

CHICAGO. —(UP)— Although his recent travels have been limited to hurried trips to Chicago and Miami, with a brief sojourn in Philadelphia, "Scarface AL" Capone is as well known in the orient as he is here, says Maj. Gen. Milton J. Foreman, who has just returned from a round-the-world trip.

And although the Chicago racketeer is accepted here as an unwelcome part of the city, his name causes little more of a flurry than does a wind storm on Michigan avenue, or a quick change of temperature. But in Java, Burma, and French Indo-China, it's a different story.

"The impression seems to prevail in the minds of a few," Gen. Foreman stated, "that Chicago is the most beautiful city in the world, but the most dangerous, and the name of Al Capone is on everybody's tongue. "Scarface" is as well known in the orient as he is here. Some people over the world believe they would be shot down by machine guns five minutes after their arrival in Chicago."

Members Of Ring Arrested

CHICAGO, Aug. 8—According to a story appearing in the Daily Times today three members of an alleged $1,000,000 international bond theft ring were arrested in Loop district hotels by detectives; their leader was running into a trap set for him.

Police allege that one of the captives, an ex-convict, had $250,000 in stolen bonds in his possession.

DOG HOBBIES BRINGS JAIL

IOWA FALLS, Iowa—UP—Dogs are a hobby with N. P .C. Petersen, he explained to Judge Charles L. Haynes when he appeared before the judge on a charge of maintaining a nuisance.

So, too, it appeared from the testimony, is Petersen a hobby with dogs. Witnesses said Petersen's home had virtually become a pound where all stray dogs in the city were given a home.

At the time the complaint was filed against Petersen by neighbors whose sleep was broken by barking and whining of the dogs, there were 32 canines harbored in and abut Petersens' hme.

The plea of the defendant that his dogs were his hobby brought from Judge Hayes no sympathy, but a $25 fine. At this Petersen became adamant an drefused to pay the fine, whereupon he was jailed.

It was here that Petersen erred. For had he paid his fine he might have returned to his doggy home and pursued his canine fancying. But while in jail, Sheriff W. H. Thompson and Chief of Police John Joens arme dthemselves with pis-Joens armed themselves with pis-haven for dogs.

Under the merciless fire of the peace officers, 27 of the shaggy pets went to death. Three sensed the absence of their master's kind spirit in time to flee and two were left to greet Petersen when he was freed.

JACOB BERMAN GIVEN LONG SENTENCE

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 8—Jacob Berman, once a central figure in the Julian petroleum scandal, today was sentenced to serve from three to 12 years in San Quentin prison on conviction of three counts of forgery.

Sentence was passed by superior Judge B. Rey Schauer, who ruled that the term begin as soon as Berman, alias Jack Bennett, completes a seven-year mail fraud term at McNeil's Island federal prison.

Both prison terms resulted from Berman's participation in the affairs of the ill-fated oil company which cost 40,050 investors about $100,000,000 when it failed.

Berman was involved in a score of civil and criminal entanglements as a result of the collapse. He turned state's evidence at some trials of other men and was acquitted of several counts in state courts.

His testimony was partially responsible in sending Asa Keys, former Los Angeles District Attorney, to prison on a bribery conviction.

S. C. Lewis, president of the defunct Julian Petroleum corporation, is serving seven years at McNeil's Island on a mail fraud conviction.

DEATH TOLL IN BIG FLOOD GROWS

NOGALES, Ariz., Aug. 8—UP—An army of men carrying pick and shovels dug into the mud and debris in the streets of Nogales, Ariz., and Sonora today in search of persons missing following the cloudburst which inundated this region Thursday claiming five lives and causing half a million dollars damage.

As work progressed officials of both cities reported the number of missing increased from seven to ten. A. R. Sayago, fire chief of Nogales, Sonora, was in charge of the rescue work.

Of the thousands homeless from the catastrophe, 65 families numbering 300 persons were in dire need of aid. Salvation army and Red Cross workers were distributing food and clothing to them.

Buildings Fall

Many buildings in the Sonora city weakened by the torrential waters, were condemned by authorities. Included was the Sonora hotel, valued at $30,000, which will be torn down.

Nogales, Sonora, famous for its night life, was dark tonight. Merry revelers who cross the border daily from all sections of the United States, were put to work at the task of hunting for the missing.

Mexican soldiers and American peace officers patrolled the twin cities to prevent looting of stores and other business houses.

J. J. Lowe, chief of police of Nogales, Ariz., said his men had the "situation in hand." Mexican officials declared there was no need of declaring martial law in the Sonora city.

To Bury Victims

As the waters receded, and fears of a second cloudburst subsided, the two cities prepared to bury the victims of the flood.

Emergency crews worked through the night and part of today in repairing the Nogales powerhouse, and fallen lines. Restoration of telephone and telegraph communication was effected to all points.

Physicians were organized to prevent an outbreak of disease. They urged that all refugees be inoculated against typhoid fever. A large supply of serum was on hand, and nurses were passing it out to anyone desiring to be vaccinated.

Fall Babies Have Good Health Chance

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. —UP— Babies born in September enjoy the greatest chance of survival according to the state department of health which reports it finds that ten per cent of the children born in January perish during infancy while only seven per cent of the September arrivals succumb.

The explanation, the department states eils in the fact that prospective mothers eat more foods, rich in vitamins, during the summer because vegetables are plentiful and cheap.

THE WOMAN OF IT

By Marguerite Mooers Marshall

Copyright Press Publishing Company (New York World) 1930

Every Wife's Endurance Test

TO MOST sensible women, everything concerning those tree-sitters and the other Excelsiors of Endurance
Seems too silly for words—too asinine even to read about;
When it comes to the children, especially, sensible women must wonder
What all the mothers are doing, to let the idiotic business go on!
Nevertheless, one spark of truth has flown up through the smoke
Of lunacy, enshrouding the contests from sane eyes—
The bright spark is the excuse or explanation proffered
By the tree-sitting matron of Camden, N. J., Mrs. Edna May Knight,
She who presumably inspired the staid Associated Press to send out the following pathetic, poetic apostrophe:
"Who is it, when it's time for tea,
"And children whimper hungrily,
"Is sitting calmly in a tree?
"My Mother."

MARGUERITE MOOERS MARSHALL

Mrs. Knight is the mother of a tree-sitting boy, and when asked what she was doing and why,
She first murmured something about "not letting my own boy beat me"—
But then, THEN, came the spark of truth and humor, when she added
That three marriages had inured her to worse discomforts than tree-sitting!
Many a married woman will at once agree
That ONE marriage is enough of an endurance test for her!
First of all, she must endure the inevitable routine
Of providing two, perhaps three hearty meals a day for her spouse—
No matter what the weather, or how she feels, or what else she'd rather do—
No woman alive is so insistent on the quality and quantity of food
As is practically every man!
Then, she has to endure all her husband's moods and tempers—
Whatever may have caused them, they are taken out on her.
If he has a headache,
If a thunder shower ruins his new straw hat,
If he loses an important contract at the office,
If his favorite stenographer gets married on him,
If somebody walks all over him in the subway—
Ten to one, it's his wife who has to endure the resultant grouch.
She also has to endure his financial policy—
His irrational extravagance, or his petty miserliness,
Or his inconsistent alternation between the two attitudes.
She must put up with his natural masculine disorderliness, carelessness, absent-mindedness;
When he leaves his discarded garments flung all over the bedroom and bathroom,
When he lays a lighted cigar, or drops an unextinguished match, on the mahogany table in the library,
When he forgets to mail a letter, or to shut the refrigerator door after a midnight lunch—
What's left to his wife but silent (or sputtering!) endurance?
Here are some of the commonest tests of this quality in her.
In addition, every wife can produce her own list
Of the trials that make her marriage
A matter of patience, of long-suffering, of endurance.
And yet—oh, she and we may as well play fair—
It's certain that her husband has his trials, too,
That her moods, tempers, whims, bad habits, stupidities,
Give him plenty of exercise for HIS patience, HIS long-suffering, HIS endurance!
A woman is only one of the pair
Who have to stand a lot in married life—
To "bear and forbear."
Marriage involves much enduring, on both sides,
But the right sort of marriage is more than a test of endurance—
The right sort of marriage ENDURES—and ENDEARS!

DISILLUSION

All Earth rejoiced the hour we made our vow,
Soft night winds played and star-dust blinded me,
Bewitched by fragrance and by melody,
Spellbound by magic of a moonbathed bough,
I let not circumstance, nor time allow
To change me; and the woman whom you see
Is true to Love as once she swore to be—
I dream of Love when I behold you now.

And now you're fat and forty by the grace
Of nature; and you have achieved success;
You've grown a most unutterable bore;
I watch the soft contentment of your face,
Your dull complacency, and I confess
I'll meet my lover when you start to snore.

DORA BECK.

A FRIEND OF WOMEN'S RIGHTS

ALL feminists should hang a metaphorical wreath of rosemary, "that's for remembrance," on the name of Charles L. Guy, former Justice of the Supreme Court in New York, who has just died at seventy-four. Many of our sex must share our grateful recollection of his old-fashioned courtliness, combined with his splendidly modern fair-mindedness. Away back before the war, when any man needed courage to favor Woman Suffrage, Justice Guy was outspoken in demanding it.

Women, he believed, needed the vote both to help themselves and to help their country. "If there were as much waste, inefficiency and incompetence in women's management of their homes as is to be found in Federal, State and most municipal governments to-day, the homes of America would be bankrupt," he once told us.

He argued that a woman should share fairly in her husband's income; on the other hand, he was opposed to excessive alimony. "There ought to be a law," he said to us in 1915, "requiring every man to give his wife a certain proportion of the joint earnings as a right and not as a privilege. After the household needs are satisfied a woman should have a fixed sum to do with as she pleases."

Finally, he advocated women jurors, for two reasons—because women on the average are better educated than men; because, secondly, women are less emotional.

"I believe," he said, "that the average woman is fully the equal of the average man, mentally and morally, wherever she has had equal opportunity for practical experience. Even physically, while possessing less muscular strength, her powers of endurance are frequently much greater."

To quote Shylock, "Oh wise and upright judge—O learned judge!"

The Picnic With the Car

IF YOU are the fortunate possessor of a car and a family, of course you have the pleasure of an occasional picnic dinner. No? Then just give yourself and family that treat. Phone to wifey to have everything ready when you get home. Then motor out into the great out doors. Select a secluded spot at a brookside, in the woods or under a big tree; spread the blanket and auto cushions on the ground (grandma may prefer a camp stool) and let mother serve the eats.

You have no idea how delicious everything will taste, you will enjoy the beauties of nature, perhaps the setting sun, and the relaxation in the open air will do you a world of good. Perhaps you will like to play hide and seek with the kiddies or have a game of ball tossing. Try it and see whether the picnic dinner is not a pleasant summer diversion for the whole family.

A DISH A DAY

Copyright Press Publishing Company (New York World) 1930

The best selection for a main course at dinner these hot summer nights is fish and, luckily for the budgeteer, these are moderately priced. Luckily, too, for the many ingenue cooks who write me that they are taking the first steps in learning to cook by trying the daily recipes in this department, the preparation and cooking of fish is very simple.

KAREN HOLLIS

There is nothing more delicious at this season than filet of sole or filet of bass if properly prepared. Don't, I beg of you, dip them in egg and cracker crumbs and fry them in this hot weather. Those batter jackets are much better suited to winter weather.

Try cooking fish filets th's way and I am sure you will find them much more tempting.

FILETS OF BASS

1 small or 2 large fish filets
1 teaspoon salt
1 medium-sized onion, minced
Juice of one-half lemon
½ tablespoon minced parsley
½ tablespoon crushed thyme
1 bay leaf
4 tablespoons corn meal
White pepper
2 tablespoons butter or oil

Wash the filets in cold running water and wipe dry. Put in a bowl with salt, minced onion, lemon juice, parsley, thyme and bay leaf, and let stand about half an hour. Sprinkle lightly on both sides with corn meal, dot with butter and season lightly with white pepper. Put in baking dish and bake in moderate oven about twenty minutes, or until fish is firm and lightly browned on top. Serve plain or with tartar sauce made by beating one tablespoon chopped sweet pickle, one teaspoon chopped onion, one teaspoon capers, four chopped olives and one teaspoon lemon juice into one-half cup of mayonnaise.

INFORMATION for one who plans ahead for wardrobe purchases!

You know it's a swell idea to do this for coats because there are dreadful pitfalls that lie ahead.

The usual procedure and one to be decried is that you dash out madly with what looks to you like a vast sum of money in your pocket, sea something that looks perfectly ravishing because it is so new and full of the fall idea. It's much more expensive than you thought it would be, but you buy it. Then, shortly, you discover it walking down the avenue to meet you or popping out at you from nearby corners in a thousand different guises. Somebody else has got the idea that it was fresh and fally, too.

You see, in this machine-made age of ours this is something you've got to look out for, and that's why the study of style isn't so foolish and time wasting a proposition as it might seem at first glance. The purchase of a winter coat sets you back quite a little, as compared to other items in the costume scale, and it would seem only good sense, while you are about it, to get something that has the right style, that stands out from the multitude, that suits you too, and that, for these various reasons, you can wear through many long, cold months without taking such a spite at it that you and your coat are sworn enemies when the long winter ends.

So, listen to the tale of the coming coats and prepare yourself for a hard boiled attitude and courage to eliminate when the first array bursts upon your expectant gaze. Carry the banner that says, "Me—I'm for smartness only."

* * *

Distinguishing Lines

THE Vionnet coat carried all before it last year, and in an evolved state it carries on. It is the coat—straight in line really, that wraps over in the front and is so cut that the wrap-over piece flares on its own. In its essence that coat will be the popular one for all next year.

The details of its designing are what makes it notable. Inverted seamings neatly stitched, little scallops forming a finish that works into a design—bolero jackets sometimes of fur and made even so that they are removable—sleeves with cape tops—sleeves with melon cuffs of fur or left plain—with cuffs that are wide over the wrists finished with big buttons.

Then the fur collars—they are distinguishing, flattering, indicative of the real smartness that your coat carries with it.

Silver fox—cross fox—blue fox are all good. These furs live in spite of time. Why? Because women will have them. They know they are becoming and flattering and the designers keep them in the fashion head. The white of a silver fox lightens up a black coat to the most becoming possibilities.

Badger, natural lynx, snow leopard and raccoon are still good for the sportier types of coats.

Flat furs are caracul, Persian lamb in black or gray or black and white with the ombre effect—nutria for those with more money to spend, lapin and kid for those with less.

Flared coats have proved themselves so flattering—so kind to the woman of uncertain figure—that, beyond all shadow of a doubt, they will lead the procession for fall and winter. But don't go in for too exaggerated a cut in this direction.

And don't think that just because I intimate that furs tone down the "off" figure they are not good for the tall and thin. They are perfect for almost any one and must be regarded as smart from the very start.

Then notice the idea of the fur bolero (sketched). It can be removed and worn separately with dresses, if you like—a brand-new idea in coat designing and one that is bound to have its way. It is too practical and too goodlooking to fail.

Oftener than not cuffs are left plain, giving the fur trimming to other portions of the coat—the collar, the cape, even for a band about the hips, making the long coat look like a short coat that might be being worn with a dress.

Cream Is Not Enough in Summer

AS ONE result of a little concentrated research we find there are as many women these torrid days saying "I never use soap on my face" as there are in winter. All of which puzzles us, because even very dry skins are not nearly so dry this time of year as in winter. Moreover, heat tends to widen the pores and make them much more efficient dirt-attracters.

FRANCES OLIVIER

Except in the very rarest of cases, this department cannot see the "no soap" theory at all, since soap and water constitute the most thorough cleansing combination, and since there are soaps and soaps.

There are strong soaps and there are harsh soaps. Needless to say, all skins should steer clear of the harsh ones. Then there are liquid soaps and washing preparations composed largely of soap; almond meal is one. And since soaps come in such variety and since everybody knows what good cleansers they are and what a very dirty season summer is—in the city especially—well . . .

The point is that every skin demands at some time or another something besides a good cleansing cream to keep it really clean and pepped up. To ladies with tissue paper faces we highly recommend washing once or twice a week with warm soapy water—to be made from a gentle soap, of course.

And to all ladies we urge the use of some form of liquid cleanser, whether it be soap and water or a soap substitute or a specially prepared liquid cleanser. Because in addition to doing a more thorough cleansing job than can cream alone, however excellent the cream, there's refreshment in the use of a liquid on the face. If the liquid cleanser has tonic value, so very much the better.

As we have already said, pores tend to widen under the influence of heat, and wide pores, as you know, need thorough cleansing to rid them of waste matter. Also they need toning to tighten them. Diluted toilet water is excellent for this purpose. So too is eau de cologne. Equal parts witch hazel and water make a cleansing tonic also good for hot weather and lazy pores.

Let the thin and easily wrinkled skin protect itself with a preliminary cleansing with cream, but let it not deny itself the comfort and the added beauty which comes with the use of soap and water or soapy water, soap substitutes, liquid cleansers or cleansing astringents. Every skin has need of liquid refreshment sometimes and particularly during the dog days!

As to Shoes

Never use a cloth to clean suede shoes because this mats the nap. Use steel wool in 00 grade and rub gently, using a circular movement.

ON THE STAND ONCE MORE

NOW that Bishop Cannon has married, he may be in for cross-examinations again:

MRS.—What did you do with last week's salary?

BISHOP—I bought that floor lamp, dear, and those extra blankets.

MRS.—That only accounts for $15.59. What did you do with the balance?

BISHOP—You overlook the fact I also paid cash for those lamb chops last Thursday night.

MRS.—There still remains $132.20 unaccounted for. Now tell me where that went.

BISHOP—I refuse to be interrogated in any such manner.

MRS.—You mean you defy your lawful wedded wife to ask you what you did with your pay?

BISHOP—I do not defy you, my dear, but as the head of the family I insist on standing on my rights.

* * *

MRS.—I ask you again, What became of your last week's pay?

BISHOP—I decline to answer, sweetheart, on the ground there is no quorum present.

MRS.—Quorum or no quorum, you'd better tell me how you spent it!

BISHOP—Darling, I spent the balance in a perfectly legitimate manner.

MRS.—Don't darling me! If it was perfectly all right, why don't you tell me where it went?

BISHOP—I am standing on my rights, I tell you!

MRS.—How do I know you didn't blow it in on chewing tobacco or roller coaster rides?

BISHOP—I have no intention of telling you, madam.

* * *

MRS.—Now, look here, James. No husband can talk to me like that.

BISHOP—My darling, I'm telling you I spent my last week's salary for legitimate expenses. Why can't you believe me?

MRS.—I would if you told me what you spent it on. I want more than a rough idea.

BISHOP—That is all I intend to tell you.

MRS.—Well, then, what became of your salary the week before last?

BISHOP—That, too, went for ordinary household expenses.

MRS.—Such as what?

BISHOP—My dear, there is nothing in our marriage contract that gives you the power to question me this way. Remember, you promised to love, honor and obey.

MRS.—Marriage contract or not, I'm entitled, as your wife, to know where your money goes.

BISHOP—I am telling you I spent it for household purposes.

* * *

MRS.—Maybe you call putting up more margin household expenses.

BISHOP—Madam, I shall stand for no further questioning along those lines!

MRS.—You know what has happened to lots of husbands, don't you, who refused to tell where their pay went? Their wives have refused to get supper for them.

BISHOP—I am fully aware of that, dearie, but what I did with the money is none of your business.

MRS.—James, you're sure you're not playing the market again?

BISHOP—One more crack like that and I'll walk out of the house and get my own supper at the delicatessen.

MRS.—I still think you may be fooling with the market again.

BISHOP—Madam, I'm walking out on you!

MRS.—Well, don't forget your crutch!

School nurse says all girls should know this

TALKING to a roomful of high school girls on personal hygiene, an experienced district nurse said: "One of the basic rules of health for girls is to keep the system functioning naturally at all times. Normal exercise and diet habits should be encouraged. But when necessary there's no harm in taking nujol, since it works mechanically and can't disturb the normal functions of any organ of the body. Particularly with girls, there are times when nujol should always be taken. Take a spoonful every night for a few days. It's a thoroughly safe and harmless method. It won't cause distress or gas pains or griping."
Nujol is different from any other substance. It contains no drugs or medicine. It can be taken safely no matter how you are feeling because it is so pure and harmless, and works so easily. Every woman should keep a bottle on hand. Every druggist has this remarkable substance. Get the genuine.

V. F. W. TO HOLD GRAND BALL IN S. F.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 8.—King "Whoopee" will reign supreme at the international celebration and grand ball to be staged by the Veterans of Foreign Wars of the U. S., San Francisco Post No. 58, at California hall, Polk and Turk streets, August 23, Commander Ray Mullin, general chairman of the committee of 100 directing the affair announced today. Prizes for the best dancers of the latest steps, vaudeville, military band concert, and folk dances of Germany and the Allied nations are some of the features being arranged by the committee.

The affair starts at 8:00 o'clock sharp with a military band concert by the newly organized band of the San Francisco County council under the leadership of Band master Chas. Franchi. Every member of the band is an ex-service man who served in army and navy musical organizations and a revue of famous war songs, marches, and popular tunes is programmed. An augmented union dance orchestra under the leadership of Art Forcade has been engaged for the celebration and dancing will continue all night.

A parade of the drum corps, drill teams, color guards, famous Scotch Kiltie Band of Oakland, composed of British War vets, French, Italian, Belgian and Imperial Russian veteran groups at midnight is another feature which will interest the general public. A German waltz contest for a valuable cup and open only to delegates attending the Sangerbundes convention, dance contests for officers and men of the United States battle fleet which will be in port are other colorful arrangements made by the committee.

California and Nevada department officers of the Veterans of Foreign Wars of the U. S. headed by Commander H. W. Winn, Senior Vice-Commander Val Brandon, Junior Vice-Commander Oliver Hall and National Junior Vice-Commander Darrold DeCoe will be among the distinguished leaders present at the affair as guests of Commander Chas. J. Gavin of the San Francisco County Council.

Slayers Remove Victim's Body

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 8—Police today were searching for two unknown men who killed an unidentified man at a street corner, took his body into their machine, and speeded away. Several pools of blood on the sidewalk were the only clues left behind.

Two witnesses of the shooting told police that they had seen the man standing at a street corner for sometime before the gunmen arrived.

When their car stopped, witnesses say, two men leaped out, fired two shots at the man, who crumpled upon the street.

Asama Volcano In Japan Is Active Again

KARUIZAWA, Japan, Aug. 8—UP—The Volcano in Mt. Asama, famous double-suicide peak, erupted at 10:20 o'clock tonight, shaking houses in Karuizawa, popular summer rosort in the mountains about 90 miles northwest of Tokio.

Ashes rained over the resort during the brief activity.

The volcanic mountain, nearly 9,000 feet high has been semi-active for several years, erupting from time to time and constantly emitting sulphurous gases.

Mt. Asama is a favorite spot for "Shin-Ju" or double-suicide. Many couples frustrated in love have walked into the precipitate ,awesome crater at dawn.

Thousands of tourists, including many foreigners, climb the volcano at this season of the year to view the magnificent 1000-foot wide crater. It is a steep, all-night climb, made difficult by the soft ashes near the peak into which the pilgrims sink, sliding back almost as much at each sted as they move upward.

Second only to Mt. Kuki in traditional beauty, Mt. Asama's eruptions in recent years seldom have emitted lava, but ashes not infrequently are spouted into the air, causing more inconvenience than damage.

TROOPS WILL GUARD RIOT CITY

ful town of Marion tonight, as calm as though a mob had neveh stormed through its tree lined streets.

Only the presence of an unusual number of police, particularly in the negro section, and the battered appearance of the jail indicated the frenzy which gripped a mob of 4,000 persons late last night.

Sheriff Jacob Campbell today cut down the swaying bodies of the negroes, Thomas Shipp and Abraham Smith, both 18, while some of the erstwhile lynchers looked on quietly. Gilbert Cameron, 16, who confessed he was the third member of the trio which attacked Miss Mary Ball, 19, and killed her 23-year-old escor, Claude Deeter, was given medical attention from the severe beating administered him after the mob had executed his two comrades.

Coroner O. L. Stout held thit Shipp and Smith had "met death as the result of a riot by persons so far unknown."

Prosecuting Attorney Harly F. Hardin told the United Press that the Grant county grand jury would go immediately into an investigation of the lynching when it met September 1. He said that he would conduct a complete investigation into conduct of the mob.

Sheriff Campbell, in announcing that National Guardsmen would not be needed to control the situation, defended his orders not to shoot during the height of the riot when the attackers stormed he jail, tore down doors, and pulled the negroes screaming to their deaths.

"If a shot had been fired, three or four hundred persons would have been endangered," he said. "It would have been a terrible slaughter. Dozens or ring leaders brandished revolvers."

Time Savers

The great American instinct is to save time—a lot of time—and then some more time. In the big affairs and the little things of life, time is the most valuable thing at our command.

Limited trains, automatic telephones, special editons of newspapers, sixty-miles-an-hour automobiles, airplanes still faster—we have these things in answer to our demand for speed. And an equally important time saver in the lives of people today is advertising. Just as surely as any other modern service, the advertisments bridge hours and days for people who have wants to be filled.

Readers of advertisements are the same people who demand the utmost efficiency in communication, in business, in their daily life. They know that a few minutes' reading of the advertisements will tell them more about products, values and the intelligent spending of their money than they could discover in days by any other method.

And like the other great time savers, advertisements save money and energy, as well. The reading of them is a genuine human economy.
